

Wings for L.I.F.E. Building Assets Program

Building Assets utilizes Search Institute's 40 Developmental Assets as its best practice model.

Developmental Assets® are 40 research based, positive experiences and qualities that influence young people's development, helping them become responsible, productive and caring adults.

Search Institute's 50 years of research on 5 million youth shows:

Most children who are resilient possess at least 18 Developmental Assets

The more assets young people have, the more successful and resourceful they tend to be

Wings creates a nurturing environment where children learn important life-skills that will carry them through their adolescent and adult years. Plus it is fun!

Children from one of the 14 classes offering this program proudly display their end of the year Class Completion Certificates. Children learn new skills and reinforce those already learned.

Wings for L.I.F.E. (Life-skills Imparted to Families through Education)

The Mission of Wings for L.I.F.E. is to build and strengthen healthy family relationships and individual life-skills through “best practice” programs that produce positive behaviors while respecting the dignity of those we serve in Chaves County, New Mexico.

Children learn the difference between a Growth Mindset and Fixed Mindset.

The Fixed Mindset states: “I’ll never get this right.”

The Growth Mindset states: Well I got it wrong this time, but I know I will get it right if I keep on trying and don’t give up”
